Last weekend was beautiful here at St. Luke. The school hosted a great Happy Birthday Baby Jesus! celebration in the morning, and we had our Christmas Tree lighting in the evening. Almost 300 people attended the 5:00 PM Mass, and we had a wonderful crowd gathered as we prayed and sang before the tree was lit. Over 300 cups of hot chocolate were served, and we are grateful for the great help from Sal Colak, John Dierks and the Athletic Association, the Knights of Columbus (thanks for the sound system, James!), the Martha’s Ministry, and our Children’s Choir for making the evening so special. The 109th Precinct got a last-minute call, and they were here to watch over the event for us. We are always grateful to New York’s Finest!

On this Second Sunday of Advent, John the Baptist comes on the scene. Since I was ordained on the feast of the Birth of John the Baptist (and we share the same name), I feel a personal closeness to the forerunner of the Messiah. One thing that always stands out is John’s humility: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals.” As disciples of Jesus, we need to always acknowledge that we rely on the Lord for everything we have and everything we are. John’s message? “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.” During these weeks of anticipation, we need to keep our focus on Jesus. Cards and gifts and baking and festivities are all a wonderful part of this time of year, but don’t forget that it’s all about JESUS.

On Tuesday this week the Church celebrates Our Lady of Guadalupe, the patroness of the Americas.

Although I have been to Mexico on vacation several times, I have never been to Guadalupe, but it is on my bucket list. Back in 1531, Our Lady appeared to Juan Diego. She spoke to him in his native dialect, and she asked that a church should be erected in her honor at the site. When Juan Diego reported to the archbishop, the archbishop would not believe him unless the woman gave some miraculous sign to prove who she was. When he saw Our Lady again, she instructed him to gather roses, which were not native to the place and would not normally bloom in December, into his tilma and present them to the archbishop. When he came before the archbishop, he opened his tilma to present the flowers and a beautiful image of Our Lady was on the fabric. To this day, the original mantle of Juan Diego is on display at the church erected in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe. If you are unfamiliar with this devotion, you can find many videos on YouTube that study the miraculous image on Juan Diego’s mantle. Check the parish Facebook page to learn more.

For several years now, Monsignor John Strykowski has been a Sunday assistant here at St. Luke. This month he marks the 60th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. He decided on having a very simple celebration, and so today we welcome Bishop Brennan who will preside at the Italian Mass as Msgr. Strykowski celebrates Mass to thank God for the blessings of these past 60 years. After Mass, the Martha’s Ministry ladies will provide a simple breakfast reception to give us a chance to congratulate Msgr. Strykowski and wish him well. Ad multos annos!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

THIS WEEK ON
FORMED

Week of December 10, 2023

The Spirituality of Advent
 Dr. Tim Gray discusses the spirituality of Advent and the joy of waiting for Christ.

Our Lady of Guadalupe | Littlest Saints
 A boy, his sneakers, and a giant sombrero take up the story of St. Juan Diego's miraculous encounter with the Blessed Virgin Mary. How far will Our Lady ask him to reach out in faith, trust, and confidence?

Yakhal/Hope | Advent: Word Studies | The Bible Project
 In the Bible people who have hope are very different from optimists! In this video, we'll explore how biblical hope looks to God's character alone as a basis for trusting that the future will be better than the present.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription.

Because no marriage is beyond hope...

- Is your marriage tearing you apart?
- Do you feel hurt and angry?
- Does talking make it worse?
- Thought of leaving or divorce?
- Is your marriage heading in the wrong direction?

Retrouvaille is a practical program for married couples facing difficult challenges. It is not a marriage retreat, or counseling. You will not be asked to share the personal details of your story.

Retrouvaille is different; it's a way to improve your communication, help you reconnect, and build a healthy, happier, stronger marriage.

Catholic in origin, couples of all faiths, or no faith background, are welcome to attend. We are a Christian Peer Ministry offering tens of thousands of marriages hope in over 160 communities world-wide.
