Today is Pentecost Sunday, the final day of the Easter Season. For fifty days we have joyfully celebrated the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead, and now we are renewed in the power of the Holy Spirit. This weekend some parishioners will receive Confirmation and First Holy Communion, and so we pray for God's special blessing upon them as they celebrate these sacraments of initiation.

In 2018, Pope Francis added the Memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church to the liturgical calendar on the Monday after Pentecost. In doing so, the Holy Father hoped to foster Marian piety and the maternal sense of the Church. Cardinal Robert Sarah, who at the time was the head of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, wrote, "This celebration will help us to remember that growth in the Christian life must be anchored to the Mystery of the Cross, to the oblation of Christ in the Eucharistic Banquet and to the Mother of the Redeemer and Mother of the Redeemed." The Marian title of "Mother of the Church," was given to the Blessed Mother by Pope St. Paul VI at the Second Vatican Council and was added to the Roman Missal after the Holy Year of Reconciliation in 1975. [From an article by Hannah Brockhaus on March 3, 2018 reported by Catholic News Agency.]

We are happy to have seminarian Juan Herrera with us. He is a classmate of Callistus, so we pray for both of them as they prepare for diaconate ordination in November. Juan is from Colombia; he was at Cathedral Seminary House of Formation when I was on the faculty there, and he is ready to enter his final year of studies at St. Joseph Seminary in Yonkers. He did his pastoral year at the parish of Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary-St. Stephen in Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn. Although he will only be with us at St. Luke for a couple of months, I am sure that he will have a good pastoral experience among us. Please make him feel welcome and at home here in Whitestone!

As you know, we have been making use of the great lawn during school days and at other times over these past few years. Neighbors have also been making use of the lawn with their dogs, and we are finding that some people are not cleaning up after their dogs. We will be putting up signs to remind people in the community that this is private property in the hope that we can provide a clean space for the children to have gym class and recreation during their lunch breaks. I thank you in advance for your understanding.

Attention parish men ... is anyone interested in a men's spirituality group? I have heard some very good things about a group called "That Man Is You" which is promoted by Paradisus Dei. Some groups meet very early on a weekday morning so men can participate before heading to work. Other groups meet on Saturday mornings. You can go to their website at paradisusdei.org/that-man-is-you/ to find testimonies and information about the program. If a core group is interested, I'd be happy to work together with you to bring the group here to St. Luke. Please call or email me at fr.john.costello@stlukewhitestone.org if you would like to discuss this or other programs with me.

Thanks to the Parish Council for a successful Mother's Day Plant Sale. Many of the volunteers were mothers themselves ... thanks for all you do!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello
