We unofficially welcome the summer with Memorial Day weekend. Of course, this federal holiday gives us a chance to honor and remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice in the service of our country. Gold star mothers and fathers and other family members carry the burden of the death of their loved ones, and so we express our love and support of them on Memorial Day, too. We will celebrate Mass on Memorial Day at 9:30 AM to remember all of them, and our Whitestone community will hold a ceremony and parade beginning at 11:00 AM at the field on 149th Street and 15th Drive. All are welcome!

Last weekend our parish hosted an Eagle Scout Court of Honor for two young men in Troop 235. Aiden Cecchetti and Dylan Chimento are the 78th and 79th Eagle Scouts for our troop, which was established in 1937. On behalf of our parish community, I congratulate Aiden and Dylan and their families. I have a great respect for scouts, especially those who work hard and persevere to the level of Eagle Scout. Scouting encourages young people to develop a spirit of cooperation, teamwork, patriotism, and a concern for others and the community. We are proud of these young men, and we encourage all of our young people to always strive to do their best in all things they try to accomplish, whether they play sports, develop talents, or try to help others. I am grateful, too, to the many adults in our community who volunteer many hours in scouting, sports, and in so many other ways to provide for the children of St. Luke and our Whitestone community.

Last Wednesday we celebrated an end-of-year Mass for our Religious Education Program. Sr. Katherine and Lisa Scardamaglia, along with an amazing group of volunteer catechists, work all year to provide faith formation for the young people of our parish. Some catechists have volunteered for many years; others only for a short time. I am grateful for their wonderful service, and I'm sure all parishioners join me in expressing our gratitude. We are truly blessed!

The Easter season begins to wind down as we celebrate Ascension Thursday this week. Then, we will join with the whole Church in praying for a renewal of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. With the election of Pope Leo, we saw the Cardinals gather in prayer to call upon the Holy Spirit to guide them in their sacred duty to choose a Successor of St. Peter. We recently witnessed the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation for our 8th graders before Easter, and then for 6 adults during the Easter Vigil Mass. Our parish has two charismatic prayer groups – English and Italian – that rely on the power of the Holy Spirit to keep their faith alive. Come, Holy Spirit! Veni Sancte Spiritu!

Our Carnival returns this week. We pray for good weather, lots of fun, and a safe experience for all who will join us!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

Paul and Barnabas wanted to make sure that this error would not spread.

Find and circle the underlined words from the story.

Some men from Judea went to Antioch, where they taught that Jewish customs must be obeyed in order to be saved. Paul and Barnabas disagreed. They went to Jerusalem to discuss this teaching with the apostles and elders. The Jerusalem church sent Judas and Silas back to Antioch with a letter. They told the Gentile Christians not to be troubled by what the men had said.
