The Healings: The bleeding woman and Jairus' daughter. "Do not be afraid; just have faith!"

Dear brothers and sisters,

Today we will again consider the healings of Jesus as a sign of hope. In Him, there is a strength that we too can experience when we enter into a relationship with His Person. A very widespread ailment of our time is the fatigue of living: reality seems to us to be too complex, burdensome, difficult to face. And so we switch off, we fall asleep, in the delusion that, upon waking, things will be different. But reality has to be faced, and together with Jesus, we can do it well. At times we feel blocked by the judgment of those who claim to put labels on others.

It seems to me that these situations can find an answer in a passage from the Gospel of Mark, where two stories intertwine: that of the twelve-year-old girl, who is sick in bed and is dying; and that of a woman who has been bleeding for precisely twelve years, and seeks out Jesus in order to be healed (cf. Mk 5:21-43).

Between these two female figures, the Evangelist places the character of the girl's father: he does not stay at home complaining about his daughter's illness, but rather he goes out and asks for help. Although he is an official of the synagogue, he makes no demands on account of his social position. When it is necessary to wait, he does not lose his patience, and he waits. And when they come to tell him that his daughter is dead and it is pointless to disturb the Master, he continues to have faith and to hope.

The conversation between this father and Jesus is interrupted by the bleeding woman, who manages to come close to Jesus and to touch his cloak (v. 27). This woman, with great courage, made the decision that would change her life: everyone continued to tell her to keep her distance, to keep out of view. They had condemned her to stay hidden and isolated. At times, we too can be victims of the judgment of others, who presume to put a robe on us that is not our own. And then we suffer and cannot come out of it. That woman embarks on the path of salvation when the faith that Jesus can heal her germinates so, she finds the strength to come out and go in search of him. She wants to reach out and at least touch his garment.

Around Jesus there is a large crowd, and therefore many people were touching him, and yet nothing happens to them. Instead, when this woman touches Jesus, she is healed. Where does the difference lie? In his commentary on this point of the text, Saint Augustine says – in Jesus' name – "The crowd jostles, faith touches" (Sermon 243, 2, 2). It is thus: every time we perform an act of faith addressed to Jesus, contact is established with Him, and immediately his grace comes out from Him. At times we are unaware of it, but in a secret and real way, grace reaches us and gradually transforms our life from within.

Perhaps today too, many people approach Jesus in a superficial way, without truly believing in his power. We walk the surfaces of our churches, but maybe our heart is elsewhere! This woman, silent and anonymous, conquers her fears, touches the heart of Jesus with her hands, considered unclean because of her illness. And she is immediately healed. Jesus says to her: "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace" (Mk 5:34).

In the meantime, the father receives the news that his daughter is dead. Jesus says to him: "Do not be afraid; just have faith" (v. 36). He then goes to the house and, seeing that everyone is weeping and wailing, says: "The child is not dead but asleep" (v. 39). He enters the chamber where the child is lying, takes her hand, and says to her: "Talità kum", "Little girl, arise!". The girl stands up and starts to walk (cf. vv. 41-42). Jesus' act shows us that not only does He heal from every illness, but He also awakens from death. For God, who is eternal Life, death of the body is like sleep. True death is that of the soul: of this we must be afraid!

One last detail: Jesus, after reviving the child, tells the parents to give her something to eat (cf. v. 43). Here is another very concrete sign of Jesus' closeness to our humanity. But we can also understand it in a deeper sense, and ask ourselves: when our children are in crisis and need spiritual nourishment, do we know how to give it to them? And how can we, if we ourselves are not nourished by the Gospel?

Dear brothers and sisters, in life there are moments of disappointment and discouragement, and there is also the experience of death. Let us learn from that woman, from that father: let us go to Jesus: He can heal us, He can revive us. Jesus is our hope!

St. Luke Church

MISSION STATEMENT

As a community of believers in Jesus Christ and in Communion with the Universal Church, we strive to follow the Lord's command to love God and one another.

Rooted in word and sacraments as we grow together a Eucharistic community inviting all to the Good News of Jesus.

Our Church is open for private prayer from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm each weekday.

Take advantage of the opportunity to spend some quiet time in prayer and reflection.

Monday to Friday, at 11:15am parishioners pray the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet before Mass. All are welcome!

If you cannot join in person, please join them spiritually.

If you wish to register as a parishioner of St. Luke Church, please stop by the Rectory Office during regular office hours where you can pick up a census card which can be filled out or returned by mail or in the Sunday Collection Basket.

You can even download the census card online.

Please check our website:

Kindly let us know if you would like to receive weekly offering envelopes.

Remember Your Loved Ones with Sacred Memorials

Honor them through gifts of faith, light, and love at the altar of God.

As Catholics, we believe in the Communion of Saints—our unbreakable bond with those who have gone before us in faith. One of the most beautiful ways to honor and remember our loved ones is by dedicating a memorial offering within the sacred space of the Church. These offerings are not only symbols of remembrance but acts of devotion that participate in the grace of every Mass celebrated here.

We invite you to consider one of the following sacred memorials in loving memory of your deceased family members or friends:

✠ Altar Bread - $50 Donation

The bread offered at Mass becomes the Body of Christ, the Bread of Life. When you dedicate the altar bread in memory of a loved one, you are uniting their memory to the sacrifice of Christ and inviting the entire community to pray for their eternal peace.

“Do this in memory of me.” – Luke 22:19

✠ Sanctuary Lamp - $50 Donation

The red lamp burning near the tabernacle signifies the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Memorializing a loved one through the sanctuary lamp is a quiet, enduring prayer—burning day and night—that entrusts their soul to the light and love of Jesus.

“I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness.” – John 8:12

✠ Altar Wine - $50 Donation

The wine offered at Mass becomes the Precious Blood of Christ, poured out for our salvation. A memorial gift of altar wine is a profound spiritual offering—linking your loved one’s memory to the saving sacrifice renewed at every Eucharist.

“This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.” – Mark 14:24

✠ Altar Candles - $50 Donation

Candles symbolize faith, prayer, and the eternal light of Christ. Their flame represents the soul’s journey to God. When offered in memory of someone dear, altar candles reflect a love that still shines and a prayer that still rises heavenward.

“The souls of the just are in the hand of God.” – Wisdom 3:1

✠ Altar Flowers - $100 Donation

Fresh flowers adorning the altar are a symbol of life, resurrection, and God’s beauty. They uplift the spirit and enhance our worship. Memorial flowers are a fragrant offering, reminding us of the beauty of eternal life and the hope of resurrection in Christ.

“Consider the lilies of the field...” – Matthew 6:28

Why Memorialize?

These sacred memorials draw your loved one’s memory into the heart of the Church’s prayer and worship. Each one is a visible sign of invisible grace, reminding us that in Christ, life is changed—not ended. Your memorial offering supports the life of the parish and becomes a gift of spiritual presence, lifting the soul of your loved one in the prayers of the community.

To request a memorial or learn more about availability, please contact the Rectory office at 718-746-8102

Let us honor those we love with faith, beauty, and remembrance in the house of God.

Stop Physician-Assisted Suicide in New York

New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto – and she needs to hear from you.

This bill would allow doctors to prescribe lethal medication with the sole purpose of ending a patient's life. It puts the most vulnerable among us – the elderly, people with disabilities, and those facing emotional or financial despair – at even greater risk. Suicide is not healthcare.

We must speak out to protect the dignity of every human life. Assisted suicide is a dangerous and deadly path – one we must not go down.

Take Action!

Contact the Governor's office now to oppose this deadly practice! Visit bit.ly/veto-pas or use the QR code.

INTRODUCTION TO PRAYER

PRAYERS EVERY CATHOLIC SHOULD BE FAMILIAR WITH

THE MEMORARE

A POWERFUL PRAYER OF TRUST IN MARY'S INTERCESSION, ASKING FOR HER HELP IN TIMES OF NEED. IT IS ATTRIBUTED TO ST. BERNARD OF CLAIRVAUX. IT IS IMPORTANT BECAUSE IT FOSTERS CONFIDENCE IN MARY'S MATERNAL CARE AND ENCOURAGES CATHOLICS TO TURN TO HER IN TIMES OF TROUBLE.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy, hear and answer me.

Amen.
