Today is the first day of winter, although we certainly had a nice dose of the season last weekend! Damian and Mauricio do such a great job keeping our facilities clean, and they work extra hard when it snows. When you have the chance, please express your gratitude to them for all they do for our parish. With the coming of the winter solstice, today is the shortest day with the longest night. How beautiful it is for us to celebrate the birth of Jesus as the days begin to get brighter ... the darkness is overcome by the light of Christ! On this fourth Sunday of Advent, Matthew introduces us to Mary and Joseph. Mary is found with child, and the angel visits Joseph in a dream to assure him that Mary's pregnancy is a part of God's plan. The child fulfills what the prophet spoke many years before, and the child's name should be Jesus, since He will save people from their sins.

This is a short fourth week of Advent since Christmas falls on Thursday. We will celebrate Christmas Masses as follows:

Christmas Eve – Wednesday, December 24th

4:00 PM – Children's Mass with living Nativity

6:00 PM – Vigil Mass

10:00 PM – Mass During the Night

Christmas Day – Thursday, December 25th

8:30 AM – Italian Mass

10:30 AM – Mass During the Day

12:30 PM – Mass During the Day

No Evening Mass on Christmas Day

At this time of year, many parishioners are very generous to the Church and to the staff. I am grateful for your contributions in support of the parish, especially as the year comes to an end. Parishioners also drop off gifts, cards, baked goods and other treats for the clergy and the staff. We are truly grateful for your kind gestures of love and support, especially during the Christmas season. On behalf of the clergy and staff of our parish, I extend to all of you our prayers and best wishes for a blessed and Merry Christmas!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello
