Dear Friends,

Every year on December 8, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, there is a tradition of the Holy Father going to the Spanish Steps to honor the Blessed Mother. Here is the prayer he offered to Mary last month:

Hail, O Mary!

Rejoice, full of grace, filled with that grace which,
like a gentle light, makes radiant all those on whom the presence of God shines.

The Mystery has wrapped around you from the beginning;
from your mother's womb it began to accomplish great things in you, things that soon asked for your consent—that "Yes" which inspired so many other "yeses."
Immaculate one, Mother of a faithful people, your purity bathes Rome in eternal light, your path fills its streets with a fragrance sweeter than the flowers we offer you today.

Many pilgrims from all over the world, O Immaculate Virgin, have walked the streets of this city throughout history and in this jubilee year.
A humanity tested, at times crushed, humble as the very earth from which God shaped it and into which

He does not cease to breathe His life-giving Spirit.

Look, O Mary, upon so many sons and daughters whose hope has not been extinguished:
may what your Son has sown in them take root and grow,
He, the living Word, who in each person asks to grow still more, to take on flesh, face, and voice.
May Jubilee hope blossom in Rome and in every corner of the earth, hope in the new world God is preparing, of which you, O Virgin, are like the bud and the dawn.

After the holy doors, may other doors now open, doors of homes and oases of peace where dignity may flourish again,
where people may learn nonviolence and the art of reconciliation.

May the kingdom of God come,
the newness you longed for so deeply and to which you opened yourself completely, as a child, as a young woman, and as mother of the nascent Church.
Inspire new insights in the Church that journeys in Rome and in the particular Churches which,
in every context, gather up the joys and hopes, the griefs and anxieties of our contemporaries, especially the poor and all those who suffer.

May baptism continue to bring forth men and women holy and immaculate, called to become living members of the Body of Christ, a Body that acts, consoles, reconciles, and transforms the earthly city in which the City of God is being prepared.

Intercede for us, grappling with changes that seem to find us unprepared and powerless.
Inspire dreams, visions, and courage, you who know better than anyone that nothing is impossible for God,

and also that God does nothing alone.

Set us on our way, with the haste that once moved your steps toward your cousin Elizabeth, and with the trembling eagerness with which you became an exile and pilgrim, to be blessed, yes, but blessed among all women, first disciple of your Son, mother of God-with-us.

Help us to be always a Church with and among the people, leaven in the dough of a humanity crying out for justice and hope.
Immaculate one, woman of infinite beauty, watch over this city, over this humanity.

Point them to Jesus, lead them to Jesus, present them to Jesus.

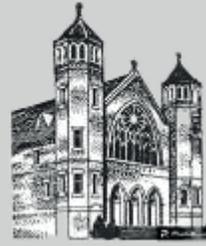

Mother, Queen of Peace, pray for us.
