GROWING IN FAITH TOGETHER AS CHURCH

In the Creed, we profess, "I believe in One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church." This Sunday, the Gospel invites us to renew our faith and loyalty to our Holy Mother Church. Although the Lord assured that, "the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it," he did not promise a smooth sailing. From without, the Church is attacked by her enemies. And from within, numerous problems, scandals, errors and sins continue to shake the Church to its very foundations. In fact, Pope Benedict XVI said that the "sins inside the Church" posed the greatest threat to the Church (May 11, 2010). But the abiding presence of Jesus makes the Church, despite its human composition, truly divine in origin and destiny, and therefore, invincible against all attacks of the enemy.

It is erroneous to take the Church to be just a physical house of worship we go to every Sunday. It is the people, the community of believers who profess the one true faith in Jesus that constitutes the Church. In the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, the Second Vatican Council states: "The eternal Father... planned to raise men to a participation of the divine life... to assemble in the holy Church all those who would believe in Christ." (LG, 2).

It is also important to note that the Church is not only the institutional and hierarchical structure. Rather, the Church is composed of families firmly adhering to the values of the Gospel. Pope St. John Paul II opined, "Marriage is an act of will that signifies and involves a mutual gift, which unites the spouses with whom they make up a sole family – a domestic church." Vatican II affirms, "The family is, so to speak, the domestic church. In it parents should, by their word and example, be the first preachers of the faith to their children..." (LG, 11).

Being the domestic church, therefore, the family is essential in the life of the Church. Whatever happens to the families has a sure and direct impact on the Universal Church. I am of the firm conviction that Jesus continues to build His Church, and no earthly power can destroy her. But to keep the Church vibrant, we need to strengthen and protect our families, the domestic Church. And the way to do this is to keep our families totally obedient to the Church Magisterium and faithful to the commitment to family prayer: "The family that prays together stays together." Then we can begin to look forward to a bright future for the Church and the entire human society.

Let us grow in faith together!
Fr. Stephen Ackah

I WANTED A BETTER MARRIAGE

We decided to attend Retrouvaille because I remembered my aunt and uncle's marriage was so different from everyone else's in my family. They never argued, always seemed calm and loving,
and spoke to each other with such respect. Later, I found out they had gone through a marriage help program similar to Retrouvaille. That's what I wanted—a better, healthier marriage. Now, after attending, I have the tools to make that goal a reality. — ”
