We are in the midst of a Novena to Mother Cabrini. The center stained-glass window by the organ is in her honor and depicts her ministry to the poor Italian immigrants who came to New York City at the turn of the 20th century. She faced many hardships along the way, but she is credited with founding 67 orphanages, schools and hospitals throughout the United States, Latin America, the Caribbean, and in Europe. Pope Francis said that her charitable works in Argentina inspired him to become a priest, and Pope Leo XIV links her with John Baptist Scalabrini for distinguishing themselves in the pastoral care of migrants. Mother Cabrini was canonized by Pope Pius XII in 1946, and the Shrine to Mother Cabrini in the Hudson Heights neighborhood in Manhattan, holds her remains in a glass-enclosed coffin. Mother Cabrini, pray for us!

As we near the end of the liturgical year, the Scriptures point us to the kingdom, and the liturgical year ends with the celebration of Christ the King on November 22nd. In today's gospel Jesus tells the parable of the ten virgins to teach about the kingdom. The virgins are awaiting the bridegroom: the five wise virgins bring a extra flask of oil for their lamps, while the foolish virgins don't. Because the bridegroom is delayed, the lamps need more oil. The foolish virgins must seek out merchants to buy more oil, but by the time they return, the bridegroom has arrived and locked the door. The bridegroom refuses to open the door when the foolish virgins return: "I do not know you." Jesus concludes the parable in a very sobering way: "stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." May the Scriptures help us to always be ready for the Lord whenever and however He calls us to follow Him.

The Parish Council is hosting a Friendsgiving event on Wednesday, which is also Veteran's Day. Some parishioners can't travel and so won't be able to gather with family on Thanksgiving, so we thought a parish celebration might be appreciated by some of our older parishioners. We also want to acknowledge the Veterans among us. If you would like to attend, please call the rectory by Monday so we can properly prepare for the event.

As you know, our parish is part of a deanery – a group of local Catholic parishes that meets regularly and works together as part of the Diocese of Brooklyn. We recently established a Facebook page for our deanery so that we can promote events and activities that are taking place in our local community. I encourage parishioners to follow the page at https://www.facebook.com/QueensDeanery4 so you can remain informed about social events, faith formation opportunities, and other activities that might be of interest to you and your family.

Next Saturday, November 14th, at 12:00 PM we will celebrate our annual Mass for all those whose funerals were celebrated here at St. Luke since last All Souls Day. Families are welcome to bring a photo of their loved one to be placed on a table at the front of the sanctuary. May the celebration be a source of consolation to those who are grieving, and a reassurance of hope that our loved ones are resting in the peace of the kingdom.

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello
